MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant to the Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : [REDACTED]
Chief, Procurement Management Staff, OL

SUBJECT : Request for Information on [REDACTED] Corporation

1. At 11:15 A. M. on this date, the writer received a telephone call from a Mr. Chris Campos who stated that he is a reporter for the Meridan Journal in Meridan, Connecticut. He requested information on any contracts which CIA may have had with the subject Corporation. He was told that the writer had no recollection of such association and could not confirm or deny any such association but that we would research the matter and get back to him.

2. Mr. Campos was asked what the nature of his interest was in any association with [REDACTED]. He replied that he was requesting the information in connection with an investigation of [REDACTED]. He went on to say that [REDACTED] is a seller [REDACTED] and that his information was that the Agency had contracted with [REDACTED] based on a referral from Senator Ribicoff.

3. A search of procurement records as well as industrial security records maintained by the Office of Logistics reveals no association or contract with the [REDACTED] Corporation.

4. This memorandum confirms information telephoned to [REDACTED] of your office at 2:00 P. M. this date. No further contact will be made with Mr. Campos based on Mr. [REDACTED] statement that he will return Mr. Campos' call and handle the matter to its conclusion.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
FROM : Andrew T. Falkiewicz
Assistant to the Director
SUBJECT : "Face the Nation" (CBS)

Mary Yates now proposes the following Sunday dates for your appearance on "Face the Nation" (30 minutes).

1. December 26
2. January 2
3. November 28

(in order of preference)

The first two dates are strongly favored; they are both likely to pose some personal inconvenience (holiday period), but at the same time, we can probably expect a larger TV audience and more significant press pick-up than at periods of more "fast news" activity.
